Sharing spiritual renewal
with evangelistic focus.

Evangelist Anita Pearce

December 2021

I wish to express my warmest greetings to you in this Christmas season. It is my prayer that Jesus will be the center of your life in these days of celebration, and throughout the coming year.

The challenges of Covid-19 have made it necessary to adapt to new realities. Extensive travel and long-term planning is difficult. However, in spite of every obstacle the power of the Holy Spirit is at work transforming hearts and lives.

How grateful I am for excellent health and opportunities to share in ministry. The Lord has been very faithful to keep me employed in His service! Almost every weekend during the summer and autumn I have had the opportunity to minister in churches within driving distance. Many are small assemblies of faithful followers of Christ. It has brought real joy to share with these precious believers. There have been testimonies of salvation, healing, and spiritual renewal.

There is a great need to bring God's Word of encouragement and reconciliation. Although divisive debates and discussions abound, the believer's responsibility is to be clearly focused on pursuing Christ and sharing the gospel. Nothing else is worthy of our time and attention.

It has been a delightful privilege to minister frequently in several Senior Care Homes in towns nearby. After months of limited contact the seniors and nursing staff are very enthusiastic and appreciative. Their faces light up with pleasure as we sing the well-known old gospel hymns and share brief messages from the Word of God. Only eternity will show a harvest of these planted seeds.

As the cooler weather has arrived and people spend more time indoors it has been a great opportunity to conduct several inspirational Book/Bible studies using Zoom. Most of these have been based on my book, "Choose a Changed Mind" which gives excellent guidelines for choosing our thoughts through the power of the Holy Spirit. If you would like to participate in one of these Zoom Bible/book studies please let us know. We will do our best to include you.

Itinerary

The uncertainties of changing Covid-19 health restrictions and regulations have made long-range itinerant ministry arrangements difficult. Until I can resume traveling greater distances in ministry I will use the tools at my disposal.

Every Tuesday morning a short inspirational video is posted on Facebook. If you “like” our business page, “Anita Pearce Inspiration Ministries” our posts will automatically come into your Facebook feed. We have updated our You Tube channel and I am posting regularly on Twitter. Of course our Webpage, www.inspirationministries.net is streaming several messages as well as regular updates of the ministry activities. I encourage you also to check out the books and music which are available. You can find them and order directly from the webpage.

filling our lives with distractions so we are blinded to the danger. He will use any possibility to disrupt, divert, and confuse us. We must centre our hearts on Christ and His Word.

Turmoil, confusion, and fear are flooding our world with fake, false and fact. A multitude of voices scream for our attention. Arguments and conflicts abound. Beware! Much of the media noise and chaotic perplexity surrounding us is satanic distraction from the Person and purposes of Jesus Christ.

In Luke 21:34 to 36, Jesus gave this warning, But take heed to yourselves and be on your guard, lest your hearts be overburdened and depressed (weighed down) with the giddiness and headache and nausea of self-indulgence, drunkenness, and worldly worries and cares

Personal Reflections

There was a mouse in the house! My friend was aghast when she discovered the telltale traces in her home. Immediately she determined to get it out of her house—dead or alive! With great care she set a trap. She put a dab of strong-smelling cheese on the trigger and placed the trap in a corner near where she had found his tracks. Then she waited. Within minutes she heard the snap of the trap. She had caught the mouse!

Of course no mouse would deliberately walk into a trap, but she had used the trick of the trade—bait. The purpose of bait is to divert attention from the dangerous set-up. Distracted by the aroma of the cheese the unwitting mouse hadn't even noticed the trap until it was too late.

We have an enemy who is intent upon our destruction. He knows we are wary of his traps. But like my friend using cheese as a diversion, Satan entices us by *pertaining to [the business of] this life, and [lest] that day come upon you suddenly like a trap or a noose; For it will come upon all who live upon the face of the entire earth. Keep awake then and watch at all times [be discreet, attentive, and ready], praying that you may have the full strength and ability and be accounted worthy to escape all these things [taken together] that will take place, and to stand in the presence of the Son of Man. ## Sermons in a Sentence

Don't be sidetracked or you will be derailed.
Don't waste your time with issues that won't matter in eternity.

Time is the best friend of the truth.

A diamond is just a chunk of coal that made good under pressure.

In an effort to save on postage costs, we are now sending the newsletter electronically to as many people as possible.
