Evangelist Anita Pearce

January/February 2021

Dear Friends,

Last year was filled with unprecedented challenges. Covid-19 impacted the entire world in ways impossible to have imagined. Through it all, however, we can proclaim the faithfulness of the Lord in His provision, His protection, and His peace.

The beginning of each New Year gives the opportunity to review God's blessings of the past as well as look forward with anticipation for the days ahead. How precious to know the Lord has already weighed our tomorrows in His grace—and His grace is sufficient.

From January until March of last year, the schedule was filled to the max with services both in Canada and Europe. In mid-March everything changed. I was forced to return from Europe into full quarantine, then lock-down. It was only in June that our province cautiously began to re-open.

After traveling constantly for over 40 years, ministering almost every evening somewhere—suddenly my world seemed to stand still, literally! It took some weeks to adapt to the sudden change of plans. It soon became apparent everything would be closed down much longer than we could have foreseen.

With the Lord's help I was able to find a new rhythm of discipline with precious time of prayer and Bible study and tackling new projects. (I even took up a personal hobby of learning some piano!)

Quite suddenly in July invitations came for me to minister in various churches within driving distance. The public health restrictions and guidelines did not limit the presence of God. His power touched many hearts with encouragement, renewal, and refreshing. It was an amazing privilege to share somewhere nearly every weekend until the end of the year!

Moving forward in this New Year, technology has made it possible to continue outreach with Facebook, Twitter, and Zoom. Amazing new realms of ministry opportunity are now available.

Several evenings of the week I have been coordinating an Inspirational Zoom Series using my book, “Choose a Changed Mind” as a study guide. It is bringing encouragement, fellowship and challenge to all who join in.

There are plans to conduct more of these Inspirational Zoom Series in the coming months as we continue to be limited by public health regulations. Another series outlining useful scriptures helpful in pointing people to Christ based on my booklet, “Leading the Way Home” is also expected to begin at the end of January. If you or your church would like to participate in either of these Inspirational Zoom Series, please contact us. We can set up a group in your area or you can join with an existing study group.

I am deeply grateful to you—my friends and supporters that have stood with this ministry in prayer and encouragement through these unusual times. In spite of challenges, careful management decisions in directing resources has made it possible for Inspiration Ministries to continue debt-free and well positioned to advance with the gospel.

As He was leaving His disciples Jesus gave this promise in Matthew 28:20, “...lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen.” How wonderful to place our trust in the Lord and His Word! We step forward into the daily challenges of this year knowing Jesus Christ will walk with us.

In Christ,
Anita Pearce
