Dear Friends

It looked like Christmas all over again when we received nearly a foot of snow in the middle of April! In fact the speaking engagement in Whitewood was postponed for one week because the driving conditions were too treacherous! However, everyone is grateful for the moisture as the threat of prairie fires had become very real. Now, at last, it seems like spring has arrived again on the prairies! In a couple of weeks the leaves will come out and the grass will be green again.

Surprise snowstorm!

Pussy willows! Spring is coming

It was such a privilege to minister in some local areas. Although online connections have been helpful, it is wonderful to gather with precious brothers and sisters and share in worship together—even masked and social distancing.

The Bible/book zoom series have now all been completed for the season. What a tremendous blessing it has been to meet with up to 150 folks every week from coast to coast across Canada during the last six months. Many testimonies were received of hearts encouraged, challenged and changed through this media ministry.

Although it is still not possible to make many ministry travel plans in advance, I am very grateful for week by week opportunities.

I also invite you to check out the Anita Pearce Inspiration Ministries Facebook business page. Every Tuesday morning I give a two minute inspirational message. If you “like” the page you will be able to receive other posts that are made as well.

How precious to know the unfailing love and promises of God in spite of life's uncertainties! The beautiful song written by Bill Gaither reminds us that all our tomorrows are secure because Jesus lives:

*“Because He lives, I can face tomorrow,
Because He lives all fear is gone,
Because I know He holds the future,
Life is worth the living just because He lives.”*

I am deeply grateful for your friendship, encouragement, prayer and financial support. It is my prayer that the Lord will return His blessings upon you and fill your hearts with His grace and courage. May the Lord strengthen and direct each one of you.

In Christ,

Anita Pearce

P. S.

In Deuteronomy 5:29, one can hear the heart of God longing for His people to earnestly seek and obey Him, “Oh, that they had such a heart in them that they would fear Me and always keep all My commandments, that it might be well with them and with their children forever!”

It grieved the Lord to see His people leaving the way of life to live in rebellion against Him. He knew the end result would be brokenness, despair, and darkness. It could be so different if they would only seek Him!

We also see society willfully, greedily, proudly defying God's truth, thinking they are progressive, scientific, and intelligent. But we know the end is the way of destruction and pain. If only people would turn wholeheartedly to the Lord! He still calls offering life, hope, salvation, and deliverance.

Let us continue to pursue the Lord with all our hearts, interceding for those who have lost their way. Although our hearts are saddened as we watch our world descend into gross rebellion, wickedness, and utter despair, God will hear the cry of every repentant soul.
