Dear Friends,

Autumn has arrived on the prairies. The leaves are falling, the geese are preparing for migration, the days are shorter and cooler. All of nature is preparing for the winter to come.

Prairie fields of grain ready for harvest

It is harvest time!

It was a privilege to minister in several local churches during the last few weeks. Everywhere folks were encouraged and edified. More than once, someone has told how the Lord had spoken directly to their situation during the services.

It was a particular blessing to share in Pangman. The assembly enthusiastically responded for prayer and there was a great sense of encouragement. I also had the opportunity to speak in a couple of other churches who are presently without a pastor. The people have united to press on seeking the Lord together.

In the Free Methodist church in Melfort, for example, I found a wonderful group of folks who were very earnest and open in their commitment to Christ. I was amazed and humbled to see their genuine hunger for the Lord.

Great fellowship with happy friends!

Thank you for your faithful prayer and financial support for these endeavors. The Word of God assures us of the Lord's attentiveness to our prayers and supplications offered with thanksgiving. We can boldly come before Him to receive grace and mercy. What a privilege! Let us persevere in faith knowing He will answer in His time and way. We press on with Him.

In Christ,

Anita Pearce

P. S. David described how God rescued him from a tumultuous situation by setting his feet on a solid rock. He wrote in Psalm 40: 1-3, "I waited patiently for the Lord; he turned to me and heard my cry. He lifted me out of the slimy pit, out of the mud and mire; he set my feet on a rock and gave me a firm place to stand."

In the chaos and instability of our world we may have the sense of being surrounded by dangerous mud pits and quicksand. Economic and political institutions are experiencing enormous upheaval. Natural catastrophes are shaking nations. Wars and rumors of wars are epidemic! There is no security in this world. Everything can be upended in a moment.

However, I am reminded of the words of an old hymn, "My hope is built on nothing less than Jesus blood and righteousness" The refrain continues, "On Christ the solid rock I stand, all other ground is sinking sand." There is a place of serenity, hope and comfort when we build our lives on Jesus Christ. We have a firm place to stand, sheltered in the arms of God.
