

October 2021

Dear Friends,

The autumn colors are beautiful. Everywhere we can see the handiwork of God. In the busyness of life it is good to pause and reflect on His greatness and goodness. There is a great country gospel song that reminds us to live "One Day at a Time". With all the uncertainties of our world we find God faithfully supplies strength and courage just for today!

Beautiful Autumn colors on the road to
The Pas, MB

In the month of September it was a great privilege to share in ministry with friends in Wolseley, SK as well as Saskatoon, SK. The fellowship was wonderful as we worshipped the Lord together. Hearts were touched and encouraged. I have also been able to sing and share regularly in several Senior's Homes where the folks are especially appreciative.

The original plan was also to be in Calgary for several days of ministry. However, these plans were cancelled quite suddenly when new restrictions were put in place because of the devastating fourth Covid wave in Alberta. In a last minute change, I received an invitation to share in The Pas, MB.

Worship together in Saskatoon, SK

Instead of going west—I went east!

There was divine guidance in the changed plan with a precious awareness of His hand directing every detail. There was great fellowship and ministry in the well-attended Ladies Brunch on Saturday morning. The Lord met with us in each service and there was a great assurance of the Lord working in hearts.

Itinerary

With the fluctuating restrictions and challenges of Covid, it has been difficult to make long range itinerary plans. However, the Lord willing, I will be continuing to minister at every available opportunity week by week as the doors open.

Oct. 3	Saskatoon, SK	The Rock Church
Oct. 17	Whitewood, SK	New Life Community Church

The Zoom Bible/book studies are also beginning in the middle of October with at least one group in Calgary, AB. Others may start again soon as well.

Thank you for your continued prayer and financial support. I am very grateful for your understanding of ministry limitations during these uncertain times. How precious to be held safely in the Lord's hands. Your friendship and support is a treasure. May you be filled with courage, wisdom, and grace.

In Christ,
Anita Pearce

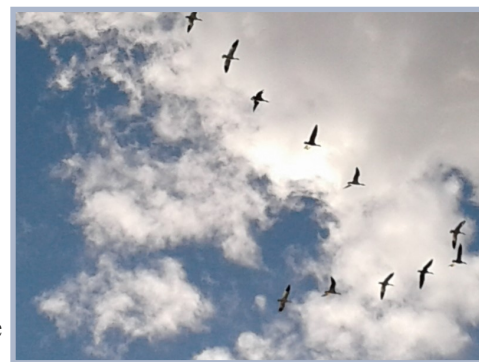

P. S. Near my home is a chain of prairie lakes, which are located on one of the central routes for migrating geese. In the spring and particularly the autumn we witness hundreds of thousands of geese travelling to their destinations. It is amazing and awe-inspiring to watch as they lift off from the lakes, then return after foraging in nearby fields. Wave after wave of V-shaped flocks fill the sky like speckled clouds—and the noise of their honking is deafening. It's like living next to a sort of "goose-airport"!

There is a voice that God has put deep within these amazing creatures. They hear the call when it is time to travel on. Following this instinct placed by the Lord, they find their direction, make their departure, and aim for their destination.

Flocks of geese filling the sky

Within the heart of every believer there is also the Voice. Sometimes from God's Word, or by impression, or by supernatural intervention we hear the Shepherd. Deep within our soul, He speaks. Jesus said in John 10:27,28, "My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me. And I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; neither shall anyone snatch them out of My hand."

Sometimes we're not listening very well and distractions usurp His Word. His whispers can be buried in the busyness of life. Very quickly people can become disoriented, then overwhelmed with confusion and discouragement.

Lay aside the distractions. Return to the simplicity of God's Word. Focus on Jesus. Listen to His voice speaking within. Keep clarity of direction and purpose. Prepare for departure. We have an eternal destination.
