September 2023

Dear Friends,

The fields have turned into waves of golden grain and the harvest has begun in earnest. The season is changing from summer into autumn. Soon the leaves will change color, the skies will fill with migrating birds, and the earth will prepare for the long winter. Believers everywhere can also sense the changing of spiritual seasons. The whole world groans, waiting for the return of the King.

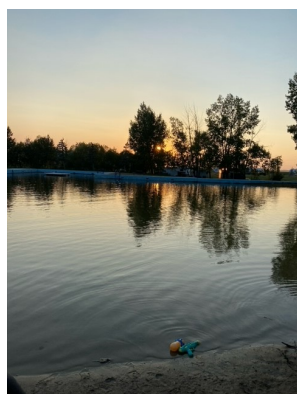

The month of August seems to have zipped past! Every weekend I have been ministering in churches nearby. Many folks have informed me they were deeply challenged and re-ignited by the Word of the Lord. There have been some exceptional moments of Holy Spirit visitation as well.

Harvest time in Saskatchewan

In Stoughton, SK we had a special Saturday evening service with an emphasis on the baptism of the Holy Spirit. Everyone who came with a hungry heart was mightily refreshed in the languages of the Holy Spirit. Others told how their questions were answered with the simple Bible teaching. One woman called to tell me her ninety-year-old mother received hearing in her deaf ears! Amazing!

I was honored to participate in a special outreach and baptismal service in Leroy, SK. This church plant endeavor has been moving forward with growing interest in the gospel. The simple message of God's great plan of salvation brings renewal to everyone! The meeting was followed with a baptismal service.

Inspiration Ministries is a registered Canadian Charity, sponsored by the financial gifts of friends and churches. Donations are tax-deductible in Canada.

The Lord willing, in September I will begin a three-month tour through Ontario and Quebec. It is such a great privilege to bring encouragement and inspiration in each place. Your prayer support is greatly appreciated.

Sept. 3	Preeceville, SK	Evangel Church
Sept. 23,24	Pikogan, QC	Lighthouse Church
Sept. 26,27	Pembroke, ON	Pembroke Christian Assembly
Sept.30, Oct.1	Peterborough, ON	Selwyn Outreach Center

Thank you for the support and encouragement which you have given. There have been many moments when I sense special strength, and am sure it is because someone has prayed. I am so grateful. May the Lord continue to bless and encourage you as we walk on with Jesus.

In Christ,

Anita Pearce

P. S. The Amplified Version of Philippians 3:10 gives a profound dimension to Paul's heart's cry, "[For my determined purpose is] that I may know Him [that I may progressively become more deeply and intimately acquainted with Him, perceiving and recognizing and understanding the wonders of His Person more strongly and more clearly], and that I may in that same way come to know the power outflowing from His resurrection [which it exerts over believers], and that I may so share His sufferings as to be continually transformed [in spirit into His likeness even] to His death, [in the hope]."

We are often overwhelmed with gratitude for the faithfulness, mercy and provision—all that the Lord does for us. These are all awesome manifestations of His great love for us. But the pursuit of knowing Christ far supersedes what He has done. What He does is only a fleeting glimpse of the grandeur of who He is. Let our hearts seek to know Him beyond His blessings. May we be enraptured with Him.
