

September 2021

Dear Friends,

The signs of autumn have begun! The leaves are slowly changing color and there is definite crispness in the air. The harvest is well under way as the shortening days warn that winter will come. God has made “everything beautiful in its time”.

There has been a wonderful sense of refreshing and spiritual renewal in every place where I was able to minister in the last few weeks. Folks have been so appreciative of the Word of God and opportunity to share more freely in fellowship.

Living Faith Church, Sturgis, SK

In Sturgis, for example, there was wonderful enthusiasm and warmth of response. In Stoughton there was a very strong sense of the Lord’s presence. There were also those who responded to submit their lives to Jesus and many were moved to renew their pursuit of Him.

I have also been able to do some music ministry in various retirement homes. The seniors have been so appreciative especially after months of lockdowns and visitation limitations. The message of the beautiful old hymns brings powerful encouragement and hope. Only eternity will show how the hearts have been touched and mended with God’s love.

Canada's Double Portion

My home church held a special Gospel Tent Meeting outreach. The “Double Portion” Gospel Music band shared three evenings of special Country Gospel Music. Special music and singing was also provided by Bob Jacobson and his wife Penny. What a blessing to meet with so many friends who came from far and near to share together as well as enjoy fantastic music ministry!

Itinerary:

It has been suggested that we have now entered the fourth wave of the Covid pandemic. Although restrictions may not be as severe, there are still limitations on some gatherings. I have not yet felt to pursue long distance travel itinerary arrangements. However, I am grateful for every opportunity for ministry. Your prayer support for wisdom and direction are so greatly appreciated.

Sept. 5	Wolseley, SK	Wolseley New Life Church
Sept. 12	Saskatoon, SK	Christ the Healer Church
Sept. 26, 29	Calgary, AB	West Calgary Full Gospel Church

Thank you for your continued support and encouragement. I am deeply grateful for your kindness. Although I am unable to make long-range ministry plans, the Lord is making ways to accomplish His purposes in spite of every obstacle. With the Lord's help and your support I will continue to minister at every opportunity.

In Christ,

Anita Pearce

P. S.

A friend was recently preparing to move from a large house to small senior's apartment. The problem was how and where to get rid of the accumulation of possessions that had been collected. There were papers to sort through. There were boxes and bags of stuff to give away, to sell, or eventually send to the dump. What a headache!

Why do we collect so much stuff? Some cling to the nostalgia of the past; others hold on with apprehension for the future when they "just might need it". When a rich man died some asked how much he left. One dryly replied, "He left it all!"

Jesus said, "Guard yourselves and keep free from all covetousness (the immoderate desire for wealth, the greedy longing to have more); for a man's life does not consist in and is not derived from possessing overflowing abundance or that which is over and above his needs" Luke 12:15AMP.

The scenes of people barely escaping with their lives from devastating fires, floods, and war should remind us to sort out our priorities. Let's live light and free, ready to leave everything in a moment. Ultimately, if we have a living relationship with Christ—we have everything!
