Evangelist Anita Pearce

Dear Friends,

The beginning of each New Year offers the unique opportunity for reflection about past blessings as well as challenge for future endeavors. My heart is full of gratefulness for the tremendous faithfulness of the Lord during this past year.

In the first few months of the past year, I was very involved in ministry via Zoom. This effective tool made it possible to share hope and encouragement with friends and assemblies right across Canada. We could impact many precious folks with this wonderful internet link.

Ministry in Moosomin, SK

In spite of the Covid travel restrictions, almost every weekend there were invitations and opportunities to minister in local churches within driving distance as well as several different Senior's homes. Since April when most Covid restrictions were lifted I have been able to make several ministry tours including several weeks in Alberta and nearly one month of services across British Columbia.

In October, with the help of a nephew I was able to produce a Christmas Country Gospel Music CD. Although its sales are seasonal, its message is universal. Christ the Savior has come!

We have continued to sponsor various mission projects as well as a number of disadvantaged children and orphans in Mexico, Brazil and Mozambique. We have also carried on the support for radio programming to the Muslim world. These mission outreaches are being served by trusted front-line workers who are seeing many hearts impacted with the gospel.

With an excellent team of committed board members and faithful office management, Inspiration Ministries has weathered the Covid challenges debt-free. As we step forward by faith into this New Year, we walk with the assurance that the Lord will never let go of our hand.

Many more ministry invitations have already been received. The Lord willing, I will be returning to Europe for a ministry tour in the French part of Switzerland and Northern Ireland from mid-February until mid-April.

In Christ,

P. S. Jeremiah had seen the terrible judgement that was about to come upon his people Israel. They had refused to repent and now he could clearly see the devastation which would soon come. However, in the middle of his expressions of grief, he suddenly found new courage as he meditated on the character of God. Jeremiah declared, "Because of the Lord's great love we are not consumed, for his compassions never fail. They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness. I say to myself, 'The Lord is my portion; therefore I will wait for him.'" (Lamentations 3:22-24NIV).

There are many parallels between Jeremiah's day and our own. However, we also can find renewed hope in the faithfulness of God. Walk forward with Him. Through Christ we shall overcome.
